Community Forum and Announcements

There is concern about the SM old library becoming a home for the homeless population and what that will do to not only property values but the schools in the area. It was suggested to contact Scott Sherman's Administration specifically Lisa Scott.

Information and Action items:

1. Board Elections SMPG (Action Item): Chris Rosemond has attended 2 meetings and would like to be on the Serra Mesa Planning Group Board. Vote was unanimous 11-0 to elect Chris Rosemond to the Board.
2. INFO ITEM: Juvenile Hall Renovations Marc Regier gave updates to the construction. Vista Hill and Meadow Lark will get a new traffic signal. Driveways that are currently or previously used will change dramatically. Projected finish date is in May, 2022.

Update from Everett Hauser on the resurfacing Ruffin Rd between Aero Dr and Gramercy it will be a 4 lane parallel parking with a bike lane. Cindy Moore was able to reach out to the residents on Ruffin Rd and they have given their feedback on the previous bike lane suggestions.

The Kate Sessions Team has launched a website www.katesessionstrees.org where they offer presentations and consultations for planting trees in the community, including where to get them, how much they cost, how to get the city involved. For further questions reach out to 858-472-1293. Anne S. Fege Ph.D. AFEGE@SDRUFC.com

Meeting adjourned at 7:56 pm.
